Right Women PAC Congratulates Cynthia Lummis for Winning the GOP Primary Race for United States Senator from Wyoming

WASHINGTON, DC – Right Women PAC today congratulated Cynthia Lummis for securing the Republican nomination for the United States Senate from Wyoming. Thanks to her solid record in the U.S. House of Representatives when she served there for four terms, she was able to win in a crowded primary field. Wyoming, a reliably Republican state, is considered to have a safe Republican Senate race this year, and the expectation is that Cynthia Lummis will win the general election in November.

Lummis is the only Senate candidate to earn Right Women’s endorsement because of the organization’s commitment to helping grow the House Freedom Caucus. Right Women only considers Senate candidates who have previously served in the House of Representatives and belonged to the House Freedom Caucus. Lummis was a founding member of the House Freedom Caucus, and will carry the mission of the House Freedom Caucus to the United States Senate.

“Right Women is proud of Cynthia’s victory, and are excited to have such a committed conservative in the United States Senate next January,” said Debbie Meadows, Right Women’s executive director. “She is a stalwart leader on pro-life issues, securing the border, and championing the Constitution. She will be an essential part of President Trump’s conservative coalition in the Senate.”

Right Women PAC’s mission is simple and strategic: to help elect genuinely conservative women to Congress. Right Women only endorses women candidates who demonstrate they are: pro-Constitution, pro-life, supportive of President Trump’s Make America Great Again agenda, staunch defenders of the Second Amendment and law enforcement agents, and advocates for border security, religious freedom, Israel, and our veterans.
